Jacob Slojkowski

FRONT END DEVELOPER - JACOBSLOJKOWSKI.COM

Profile

As a business and analytics graduate with extensive experience in the field, I have developed a robust skill set in management, planning, organisation, and thriving under high-pressure scenarios.

In the course of my career, I stumbled upon JavaScript, and whilst it was an accidental discovery It helped me to understand that coding is my true passion. Since then, I have committed myself to the path of becoming a web developer
